Of Local Interest

EXPERT IS HERE—Montrose K. Newman, of New York, representing the educational department of the West Disinfecting company, is in the city and will probably remain here for several days. The company with which Mr. Newman is connected will probably open an office in this city within the near future. Mr. Newman has an interesting and instructive article on the health problem in another column of this issue of the Republican.

NOGALES DELEGATION—The following persons will attend the Territorial Teachers' association from Nogales: Prof. G. H. Madden, principal of the Nogales schools; Mrs. G. H. Madden, Mrs. Louise O. Dodge, Mrs. Lulu Reddock Woods, Misses Ethel Harrison, Ethel Hilton, Lena Keyt, Pauline Purse, Berwick, Shumate, Miss Lena Keyt is accompanied by a sister, who is not a pedagogical professional, so she will put in her time attending the fair. The others will have to be satisfied with an afternoon view of the exhibits and the races.

GRATITUDE—That's Gratitude! C. W. Crosby, a roomer in a local lodging house, who evidently was bubbling over with a spirit of good fellowship and generosity Saturday night, adopted a stranger on the streets as a bed-fellow for the night, and yesterday morning awoke to find his trousers gone from the foot of his bed and forty dollars with them. His congenial friend had faded somewhere in the big, black night, he did not say where. Today, at the request of Crosby, the police are looking for a man with blunt-toed shoes and a "smile that won't wear off," Crosby admits, "even if it did cost me forty dollars." The man was registered at the lodging house as E. E. Loow.

WORLD IS WELCOMED

Arizona's Biggest Celebration Ever Is Now On

CHIEF EVENTS OF THE DAY

Mention of Them is Made Below But There Will be Many Smaller Matters to Claim Attention Also.

Fair week has arrived with all its fun, bustle and nerve wracking business. The Hotel Adams is open according to promise and all things considered the streets are in pretty good condition, at least better than it was feared they would be. A multitude of little things might be mentioned but there is nothing of great moment to add to what has already been printed, indicating the readiness of everything and everybody for the big show, or as near a condition of readiness as a town can ever be for an event of that kind. The city is full of people and more are coming on every train. The cavalry and the regimental band are here, the balloon is full of gas and last evening was towed out to the grounds. The thoroughbred livestock is assembled in the stalls in the greatest aggregation of fine animals that ever gathered together in Arizona. This means everything from running and harness horses, down to bossy cows, pet pups and bantam chickens. The only thing missing is the swine, the why of it having been explained.

The timely thing now is what will be done today for the hour has arrived for less talk and more action, or action and more talk afterward. There are the final touches at the fair grounds, the placing of the later exhibits to arrive, etc.

The first thing on the program for this morning is the arrival of the "Howdy" special train from Yuma at 7 o'clock, bringing the festive automobile men who made merry there last night. The party includes George Purdy Bullard who for a few days will forget politics and revel with the speed maniacs, as the chief instigator of the now country-famous road race.

At 8 o'clock the excursion train will arrive from Prescott bearing the San Diego visitors. The automobile owners of the city are expected to place their cars at the disposal of these train loads of visitors, at least until they are "tipped" for the time being. Thereafter will occur the ride of the San Diego people around the city and valley and to Glendale.

As the forenoon wanes the fever heat of excitement will rise, in anticipation of a hot finish of the Los Angeles-Phoenix auto race at the Fair grounds. The first car will leave Yuma this morning at 5 o'clock. It is not thought the winner can get here possibly before noon and perhaps not until 1 o'clock, but the race has been full of surprises and there is no telling what the finish will be. Some of the cars may develop wings during the night and glide in by 11 o'clock.

The official name of the day will be San Diego day and Children's day, the children being admitted free. The racing of the week will start off with a fine program. The 2:15 trot will be the first one. It is not the fastest class in the world but will contain some horses that are no doubt faster than their class, having developed their marks since they were entered. The 2:15 pace will also be negotiated as well as the trot for two-year-olds. But the speed event of the day will be the 2:05 pace, in which no horse is licensed to enter unless he has already made a reputation and acquired a limit action worth while.

There will of course be the midway and the usual comedy vents in front of the grand stand, as well as the music of the Sixth cavalry band of fifty-five pieces, one of the crack organizations of the United States army and present largely through the special consideration of President Taft through the request of Ralph Cameron.

Tonight in the assembly hall of the Water Users building the Arizona Cattle Growers association will hold its final session of the annual meeting, all cattlemen being urged to attend.

This morning also the Joint County Teachers Institute will convene in the Adams school building and hold forenoon sessions for three days. There will also be a meeting of the territorial republican central committee today.

The members of the various societies have arranged to extend courtesies to those of their fraternities and altogether everybody is attuned for the whols of one big fair week and the whole world is welcomed.

GUESTS OF FRANKLIN'S—Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Muntha of San Diego will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Franklin during fair week.

NOT AN OFFICER—In mentioning the organization of the New State Homebuilders in yesterday's issue, it was stated that A. H. Reeves was the treasurer of the company. Mr. Reeves said yesterday that that was an error, though he had been the treasurer temporarily.

BISHOP KENDRICK ILL—Mrs. Howe Williams left last night for Pasadena, called by the serious illness of her father, Bishop Kendrick.

FROM SAN FRANCISCO—Mrs. Catherine Copeland of San Francisco will be a guest of her daughter, Mrs. E. L. Brill for the coming winter.

MOOSE WILL ENTERTAIN—The Moose lodge of Phoenix will entertain the local and visiting Moose and their ladies at a reception and ball at O'Neill hall on Thursday evening, November 9.

KINDERGARTEN VISITORS—The kindergarten at 429 W. Monroe street will be open from 9 until 12 forenoons during fair week. Any visitor who cares to see the kindergarten work will be cordially welcomed.

FUNERAL OF JACOB DAVENPORT—The funeral services of the late Jacob W. Davenport will be held tomorrow, Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, in the parlors of Eastering & Whitney. Interment in Greenwood cemetery.

CHAMPION'S MOTHER HERE—Mrs. N. Herriek, mother of Harvey Herriek, who holds the world's record for road racing at Santa Monica, is on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hurley, and incidentally to see her son win the automobile race. It is eighteen years since Mrs. Herriek was here last. She finds many wonderful changes in Phoenix.

part in shaping our politics and our social relations, says the New York Evening Post. To trace just how its influence has been exerted would make too complicated a bit of research. What is not so difficult to depict is the influence of the national game on newspaper English. The baseball reporter's functions are twofold. After a game has been played he writes the regular "story." Before a game is played he writes what is technically known as "dope." The main characteristic of the baseball "story" is an extraordinary development of slang. All over the country, reporters speak of baseball players who perish between the second and third cushions, like Desdemona, or of a third-sucker who reaches down among his buns for a hot one. But only the young reporter will be guilty of such childishly transparent language. The veteran's vocabulary is rich in metaphors several times removed, and the greatest joy of the "fan" is presumably in stripping the truth of its seven veils.

GILA BEND VISITOR—J. J. Long, constable at Gila Bend, was in the city yesterday. Speaking of affairs at the Bend, he said the report was published in Tucson that the home of W. M. Stewart, a striking boilermaker, was burned at night was an error. The fire occurred at 10:15 a. m. Mr. Long also stated that the railroad company has all kinds of help at Gila Bend, notwithstanding the strike, although it is true that two or three engines have been dying on the road each day.

REST ROOM FOR MASONS—Arizona Lodge No. 3, F. and A. Masons, are making preparations to take care of their visiting brethren during the fair. A rest room has been fitted up on the grounds and is to be used for the convenience of Masons and their families. Members of the Eastern Star will be at the room to greet any who come and make them welcome. On Wednesday evening the Blue Lodge will hold a banquet, followed by a social hour. There will be music and cards for those who care to play.

SANTA CRUZ REPUBLICANS—Among the Nogales people arriving here yesterday were Con O'Keefe, collector of customs, accompanied by his wife; H. K. Chenoweth, a mining man; and Allan T. Bird. While all came to see the fair, one of the missions of the men is to attend the meeting of the republican territorial central committee today. The county central committee met in Nogales Friday night and organized by the election of H. Gordon Glone, chairman and ex-officio member of the territorial committee. Allen T. Bird and H. M. Clagett are the two other members elected under the law. Mr. Chenoweth has Mr. Glone's proxy and Mr. O'Keefe has Mr. Clagett's proxy.
